

Genre: Realistic Fiction

Realistic fiction, although the story is fictional, the characters are believable and the events that happen are things that could happen in real life.

