

What are the Qualities of a Good Teacher?

There are many things that make a good teacher. In this essay, I will talk about three of the qualities of a good teacher although some of the qualities you might not agree with these are my opinion.

The first quality of a good teacher is that he or she is very nice. That doesn't mean they can't yell at you if you do something stupid, but they should do it in a nice way. A good teacher doesn't yell much.

The second thing that makes a good teacher is they don't have too many rules. Good teachers don't worry about the small stuff too much like hall passes and getting you're homework done exactly at the right time. Good teachers know we are just kids and kids don't always remember the rules.

The third quality of a good teacher is that he or she should be organized. Not have a bunch of stuff all over the place. A good teacher knows where to find things and how to help you.

These are the three most important qualities of a good teacher. I think. There may be more, but I think a good teacher has these three qualities. Do you agree with these three qualities of a good teacher? Maybe you do or don't. thank you for reading my paper.
